The Certified Accounting Technician (CAT) is a vocational qualification designed by ACCA that will allow you to support the work of professional accountants. The final-level examinations are equivalent in standard to the first year of a university degree programme. Consequently, CAT graduates are allowed to move directly to the ACCA Applied Skills level.

The knowledge, skills and practical experience you have gained while studying the CAT qualification can exempt you from certain subjects and count towards the practical experience requirement of the ACCA Qualification.

There are nine examinations to the CAT, which are split into four levels. Each level is designed to test the knowledge, skills and understanding needed to work in accounting support roles. As well as completing your examination, you will have to gain a minimum of one year relevant experience while undergoing your financial training to achieve the Technician qualification.

When you have fulfilled the criteria for Certified Accounting Technician status, ACCA will confer on you the title of Certified Accounting Technician and you will be able to use the letters ‘CAT’ after your name.

The CAT qualification could be your stepping stone to the ACCA Qualification and membership of the global body for professional accountants.

ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) is the global body for professional accountants, offering business-relevant, first-choice qualifications to people of application, ability and ambition around the world who seek a rewarding career in accountancy, finance and management.

ACCA supports its 219,000 members and 527,000 students (including affiliates) in 179 countries, helping them to develop successful careers in accounting and business, with the skills required by employers. ACCA works through a network of 110 offices and centres and 7,571 Approved Employers worldwide, and 328 approved learning providers who provide high standards of learning and development.

Through its public interest remit, ACCA promotes appropriate regulation of accounting and conducts relevant research to ensure accountancy continues to grow in reputation and influence.

ACCA has introduced major innovations to its flagship qualification to ensure its members and future members continue to be the most valued, up to date and sought-after accountancy professionals globally.

Founded in 1904, ACCA has consistently held unique core values: opportunity, diversity, innovation, integrity and accountability. More information is here: www.accaglobal.com

Sunway TES CAE Audit Simulation programme is the first and only real-world audit experience embedded within classroom education for ACCA programme. It is an exclusive partnership between Sunway TES CAE and the Big 5 professional services, namely, PwC, EY, KPMG, Deloitte and BDO.

This program was first introduced in December 2015. It is conducted twice a year in June and December months. The programme consists of three components including Audit Workshop, Audit Simulation and Audit Review.

Students are grouped into 7 to 8 members and they would together to accomplish these three components within seven days in the campus.

Prior conducting audit works, students would be scheduled to attend a one-day Audit Workshop to familiar with the industrial audit practice. Then, they begin to conduct 5-days auditing work which involves meeting with clients and summarising audit findings for their work files. On the last day, the audit team would present audit findings to the audit seniors of the Big 5 professional services for review.

On 9th October 2018, Sunway TES CAE signed a MOU with ACCA to globalise the Audit Simulation Programme. ACCA would be leading some teams of international students to join our students participating in the future Audit Simulation programmes.

The collaboration with ACCA to offer international teams to join the Audit Simulation programme marks an historical milestone to place Sunway TES CAE on the world map. The trust given by ACCA evident the quality education delivered by Sunway TES CAE.

Testimonals from Students & Employers

Team Work
Through participation in Audit Simulation, we learned to work and persevere as a team regardless of race, religion and age. Our best experience was being able to work as a great team and accomplish our objectives.

Time Management
On the 5-day auditing work, we realised that time management is an important success factor to accomplish a task. We learned the effective ways to manage work pressure within little time given.

Self Improvement
Through work-together with team mates during the Audit Simulation, we acknowledged that communication was the biggest challenge among us. We began to learn more about ourselves, accept each other’s weaknesses; learn to agree to disagreement; learn to be a good listener; etc. All these experiences are essential to manage our future career.

Real Life Audit Experience
We were able to apply audit techniques and procedures from the knowledge learned through FAU and AA classes. We gathered that sampling risks; financial statement assertions; documenting audit work are key essentials when conducting auditing work. We strongly recommend students to participate in the Audit Simulation.

The teams were very well prepared during the audit review. Their presentation on audit findings was clear and straight to the point. The teams demonstrated good teamwork and they communicated well among themselves.

The students exhibited high level of enthusiasm in learning and they asked good and relevant questions. Through the audit work file, I commend that the team leads distributed work to team members evenly. I had a pleasant audit review session with the teams.

I truly impressed by the well documented audit work file as it was as good as the industrial standard. The audit work file was properly labelled, cross-referenced and appropriate tick marks! The teams were able to demonstrate a sharp understanding of the audit procedures performed to challenge some of the assertions.

The teams’ performance were good. Their presentation focused on main findings and they managed to identify most of the accounting issues. Overall, they showed strong effort in the Audit Simulation.

The teams did exceptionally well and almost all issues are covered. They were well prepared and organized with the presentation. Each member showed understanding in the audit procedures and issues highlighted.
The Certificate in Finance, Accounting and Business (CFAB) was launched by The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW) in September 2008 in the United Kingdom (UK) as a new stand-alone business qualification. This specially designed pathway is a feeder into the ICAEW and provides school leavers with an accelerated route to the ICAEW ACA qualification.

WHAT TRAINING IS NEEDED TO COMPLETE THE ACA

The ACA qualification combines study and exams with ‘on-the-job’ experience. You’ll be based with an employer, doing real work and earning a salary as you train. It normally takes three to five years to complete, depending on the route you take. You’ll need to find an authorised employer to support you and enter into a training agreement with them.

The training agreement will outline the support you’ll receive during training and will include details about tuition, study leave and mentoring.

In addition to giving you time out of the office to study, your employers will pay for your tuition with a dedicated provider and also pay for your exam and student registration fees.

You’ll need to successfully complete the ACA qualification before you can apply to become a member of ICAEW. Once this is approved, you can use the letters ACA after your name and will be recognised as an ICAEW Chartered Accountant.

THERE ARE FOUR ELEMENTS TO ACA TRAINING

Practical work experience
You need to record 450 days of relevant ‘on-the-job’ work experience during your period of approved training.

Accountancy, finance and business modules
15 modules, each with its own exam. These modules are staged across three levels: the first introduces you to core concepts; the latter two build on your growing technical knowledge and experience.

Ethics and professional scepticism
Ethics and professional scepticism are an essential part of being a chartered accountant. You’ll follow a structured programme to ensure you apply them - focusing on areas such as integrity, objectivity and independence.

Professional development
Demonstrate your competence in seven key professional skills (such as communication, team working and decision making) by providing an example from your work experience.

ACA QUALIFICATION

- Practical work experience
- Accountancy, finance and business modules
- Ethics and professional scepticism
- Professional development

The ACA is both rigorous and challenging. But that’s why our chartered accountants are always in demand.
